The Company may from time to time require you to undertake additional or other duties as necessary to meet the needs of the business on a short term basis e.g. holiday or sickness cover.

New employees join the Company on a three month probationary period.

During and/or at the end of your probationary period you may be asked to attend employment reviews to discuss your overall work performance. Absence, timekeeping and general attitude may also be taken into account. If the Company is satisfied that you have reached the required standards your permanent status will be confirmed.

If you have not reached the required standards, your employment will be terminated with the required notice.

The Company reserves the right in borderline cases to extend the probationary period, in the hope that a further period will enable you to reach the required standard. A subsequent employment review will be held and a decision made. Your employment will then either be confirmed or terminated with the required notice.

You may be required to work a reasonable amount of overtime hours as directed by the Company. This may include the need to work shifts, unsocial hours and weekends.

Please note that JMS will not tolerate a similar amount of time off that you had in your previous employment with the company. You must let us know in good time if you are unable to get into work on a particular day. The first time that the timekeeping/sickness policy, as outlined in the handbook, is not followed you will receive a verbal warning. The next time will be strong disciplinary steps.

Clocking in and out

If your working time is recorded by time clock you must observe the Company procedures on clocking in and out whilst on the premises during working hours.

If you leave the premises during working hours you must clock out when leaving and clock in upon return. In the interests of health and safety, you must notify your Line Manager if you need to leave the premises for any reason during working hours.

Holiday entitlement

The holiday year runs from 1st January to 31st December. You are entitled to 20 days' holiday a year calculated at the rate of 1/52nd of the annual entitlement for each complete week of service remaining in the current holiday year.

During your first year of service, however, your entitlement to take holidays will accrue on the first day of each month of that year at the rate of 1/12th of the annual entitlement. Where the current accrual includes a fraction of a day other than a half-day, the fraction will be treated as a half-day if it is less than a half-day and as a whole day if it is more than a half-day.

You are required to reserve up to four days of holiday to take during the Christmas/New Year period.

After 5 years service with the company you will start to accrue 1 extra day's holiday per year of service up to a maximum of 25 days per year.

In addition to your holiday entitlement you may take and be paid for the bank/public holidays each year.

The bank/public holidays are: New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, the first Monday in May, the last Monday in May, the last Monday in August, Christmas Day and Boxing Day, or such other days as may be substituted.

Part-time employees are entitled to pro-rata holidays.

A more detailed explanation is contained in the Employee Handbook.

Holiday pay

Payment for holidays will be at your normal basic rate under your terms and conditions of employment for your normal hours of work.

On termination of employment holidays will be calculated in proportion to the full entitlement. If you have taken less than this entitlement the surplus holiday pay will be added to your final pay. If you have taken more than this entitlement the excess holiday pay will be deducted from your final pay.

Sickness absences

The Company is required to pay Statutory Sick Pay for certain periods of sickness absence. Payment may be made to eligible employees for periods of absence of four days or more. There is a maximum period of 28 weeks payment in one period of incapacity for work.

A more detailed explanation is contained in the Employee Handbook.

You should do this in writing to a Director who has not previously been involved in the disciplinary process within five days of receiving your confirmation of discipline letter.

A more detailed explanation of the procedure is contained in the Employee Handbook.

Grievance procedure

If you have any grievance relating to your employment, you should raise it with your Line Manager in the first instance. If you want the grievance to be dealt with formally, you must raise it in writing.

A more detailed explanation of the formal procedure is contained in the Employee Handbook.

Pension scheme
