Changes to name, permanent address and health

You must tell DVLA at once of any change to your permanent address either online at www.direct.gov.uk/changeofaddress or by using the section provided overleaf. You need only notify a change of address in GB. An address outside GB cannot be entered on your licence. If your surname or first names have changed, you will need to fill in the appropriate sections on the D1 application form available to order from www.direct.gov.uk/motoringforms and to pick up from Post Office® branches.

in all cases both your photocard licence and this paper counterpart must be returned to DVLA, Swansea, SA99 1BN.

Please remember also to change your address on any Vehicle Registration Documents (V5C) or digital tachograph card that you have. Your digital tachograph card details can be changed by completing a D777B or D777B(DL) which is available to download from www.businesslink.gov.uk/transport

If you have a medical condition which has become worse since this licence/counterpart was issued or you develop any new condition you must write and inform the Drivers Medical Branch, DVLA, Swansea, SA99 1TU of the nature of your condition, as it may affect your fitness to drive. You can check if you need to tell DVLA about your medical condition at www.direct.gov.uk/driverhealth

Failure to notify any changes as described above is a criminal offence, punishable by a fine up to £1000.

A deceased person's driving licence and counterpart document must be returned to DVLA, Swansea, SA99 1AB with a covering letter.
