Dear Andrew,

On 12th October we placed you on flexible furlough under the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme ("the Scheme"), with your agreement, as the social restrictions caused by the coronavirus meant we did not have sufficient work within the business to maintain current staffing levels. The terms of the Scheme were set out in our letter dated 7th October and your agreement was dated 8th October.

I am now able to confirm that you will continue on flexible furlough until we remove you or the government ends the Scheme, whichever is the earlier. I would be grateful if you could sign the attached copy of this letter to confirm your agreement to this. Please return this to me as soon as possible – your agreement can be emailed back. This is in order to avoid layoffs/short time working and/or making staff redundant.

Under flexible furlough, as before, where there is no work available, then you will be fully furloughed and will receive 80% of your normal wages as furlough pay, up to the usual limit of £2,500 per month. Usual tax and employee National Insurance contributions will be deducted from furlough pay, as well as pension contributions.

However, where the Company has got work to give you, then you would work on adjusted hours at our discretion, as suits the needs of the business. You must be available to work as the Company requires. Whilst there is no minimum notice required to amend the hours you will be working, we will try to give you as much notice as we can.

As before, you will receive your normal pay for any hours that you work. Any shortfall between the hours you normally work and the hours you have actually worked will be paid to you at 80% of those shortfall hours pay as furlough pay. Please be aware that there is still a maximum amount that we can claim for your furlough pay. This is calculated as a percentage of the £2,500 limit, depending on how much you have worked. For example, if you worked 25% of your hours, then you would only receive a maximum of 75% of £2,500 (i.e. £1,875) as your month's furlough pay].

The government has not yet confirmed how exactly these 'normal' wages should be calculated for furlough payments made during this extension of the Scheme, but we will confirm as soon as we have this information.

If for any reason, you can't go onto the Scheme then we would have to class the absence as lay off or short time, as appropriate.

You will be deemed to be a flexible furlough worker until we write to you and remove you from this status or until the government ends the Scheme, whichever is the earlier.

In terms of your work schedule until further notice, your work will be as follows:

- 8:00am to 4:30pm Monday to Wednesdays.

However, these are unpredictable times and we will need to keep these working hours under review.

This process does not affect your continuity of service with the Company, nor does it break your employment in any way.

I know this is a very worrying and uncertain time for many reasons and we will do all we can during this time to generate work, within the government restrictions. I am of course always available if you want to talk anything through. I obviously hope we can return to normal hours as soon as possible, but I will keep you informed of any changes or developments. I would like to thank you for your support during this difficult period.

If you have any queries relating to this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me and I will endeavour to answer any questions that you raise.

Yours sincerely

Martin O'Brien
Director
